

ASAP 2021 Instructions and Tips

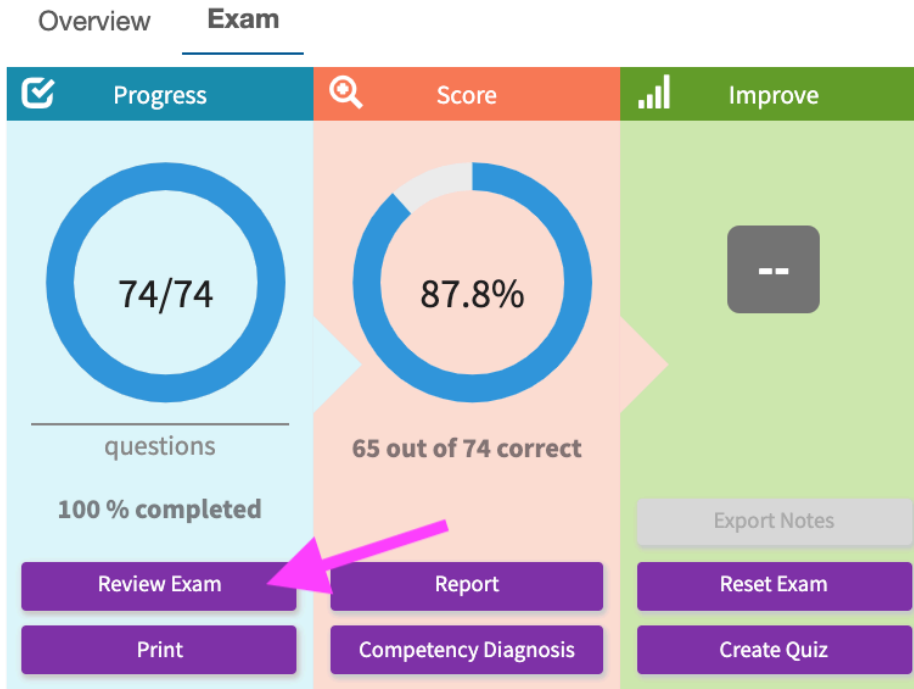

Pick your preferred leaning mode:

When you first begin you will be asked to choose between Learn mode (immediate feedback) or Exam mode (feedback after submitting all answers. You can toggle between modes at any time without losing progress. To change modes just select the mode you prefer on the course “start” page:

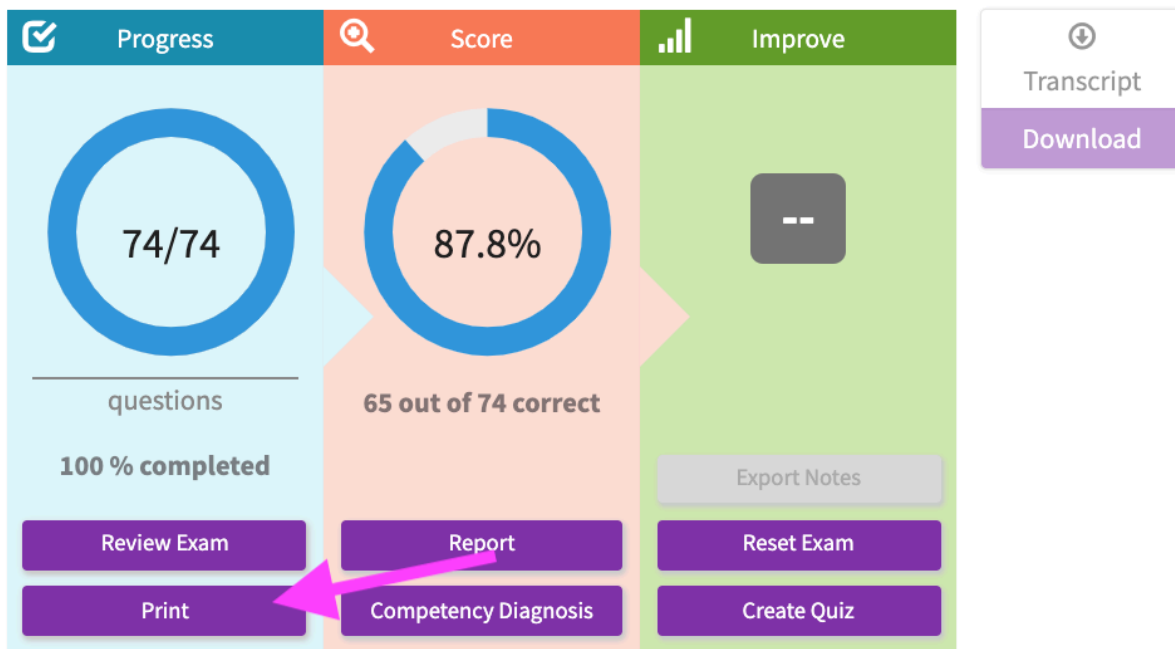

Review your results:

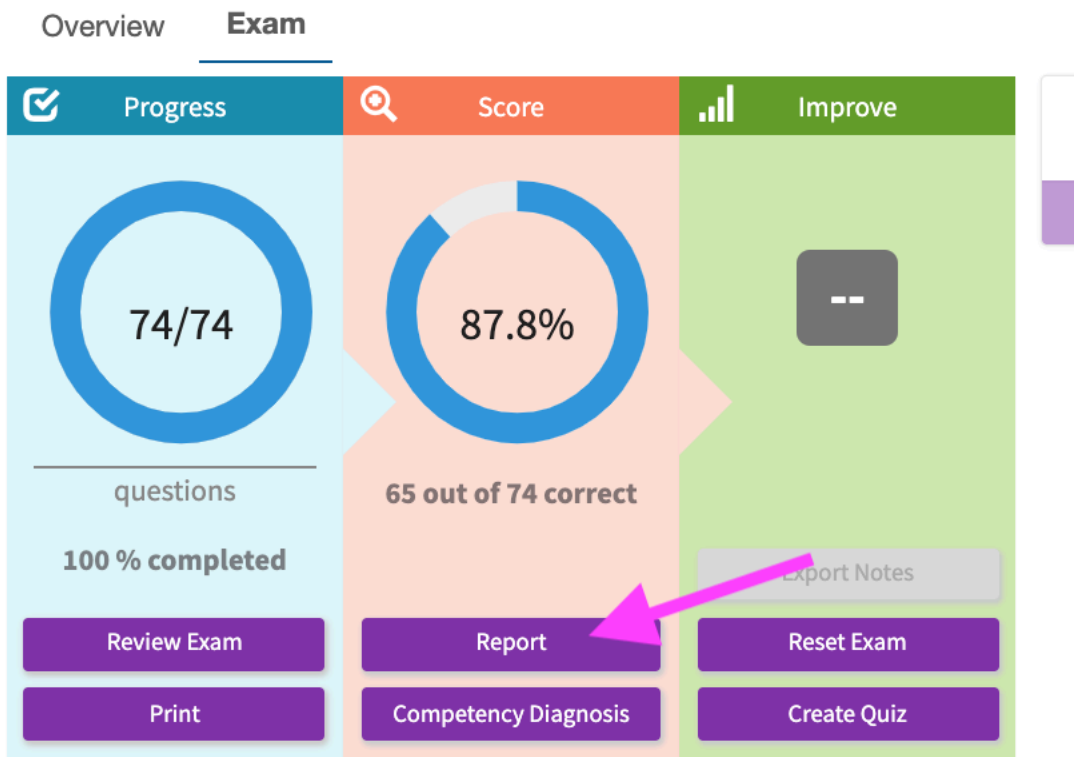

After completing all questions you can review the results by clicking the “Review Results” button:

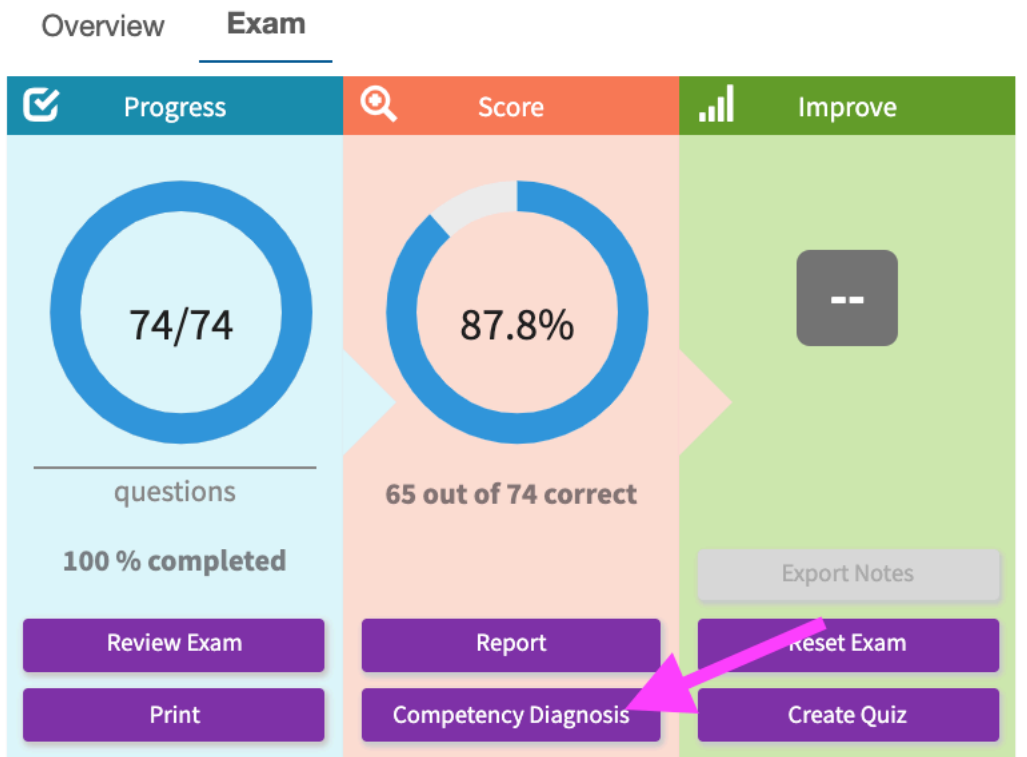

After completing all questions you can print a copy of your assessment results:

See detailed information on how you performed across topic areas with benchmarking data:

Generate a Competency Diagnosis report to review only incorrectly answered questions:

Create your own custom quizzes for unlimited self-study:
(Dialog boxes will walk you through your options on what to include)

